

Tinkerine™ and SBCK (SoftBank Commerce Korea) Sign Memorandum of Understanding to Distribute 3D Printers and Education Curriculum Throughout Asia Pacific Market

The Partnership aims to make SBCK Tinkerine's exclusive sales and distribution partner for Korean and Asian Pacific Markets

Vancouver, BC – September 3rd, 2014 -- Tinkerine Studios Ltd. (TSXV: TTD and OTC Pink: TKSTF), Canada's leading manufacturer and distributor of 3D printers, today announced it has signed a Memorandum Of Understanding ("MOU") with SBCK Corp. ("SBCK"), a subsidiary of SoftBank Corp, a global company and one of Asia's biggest technology related service providers.

Under the terms of the MOU, SBCK will be granted exclusive rights to distribute and sell Tinkerine's full suite of 3D printing products, which includes the high performance Ditto™ Pro prosumer 3D printer, its highly scalable Tinkerine U education technology platform, and its printer filament series into the Asian Pacific Region. Further, the parties will jointly develop various collaborative business opportunities covering the education, retail and enterprise sector, and will endeavour to negotiate and execute a formal agreement by October 31st, 2014.

Based in Seoul, South Korea, SBCK operates as a distributor of IT products, mobile solutions, and cloud services for the South Korean and Asian Pacific region. SBCK's customers and partners include Government agencies, public and higher education institutions, as well as major software companies like Microsoft, Adobe, and Autodesk.

Tinkerine Director of Business Development, Rob Smith said "We are excited that SBCK has selected Tinkerine as its partner for the Korean and Asian Pacific market. As a company, we are committed to aligning ourselves with best in class sales, distribution, and strategic technology partners. SBCK's corporate, consumer, and online channel partners are the perfect fit for the Tinkerine brand and our vision to become a global leader in the consumer 3D printing and education markets."

SBCK's Chief Marketing Officer, Chinchul Yi said "SBCK was looking for 3D printing solutions with strong education curriculum and Tinkerine is the right partner to initiate SBCK's 3D printing business in terms of aligning with Korea's 3D printing initiatives. We see Tinkerine as a catalyst to expedite SBCK's 3D printing business not only in Korea, but all APAC regions in the near future, through SBCK's global networks within the SoftBank group companies."
