TINKERINE CEO EUGENE SUYU WINS PRESTIGIOUS WEST COAST BCBUSINESS 30 UNDER 30 AWARD

Vancouver, B.C. – March 24th, 2015 -- Tinkerine™ Studios Ltd. (TSXV: TTD, FSE: WKN A119Y and OTC Pink: TKSTF), Canada's leading manufacturer of desktop 3D printers and 3D printing educational content, is pleased to announce its CEO Eugene Suyu has been awarded the prestigious 30 Under 30 Award as selected by leading West Coast Magazine BCBusiness in its upcoming April 2015 issue.

The 30 Under 30 award is the second high profile award Eugene and his Tinkerine team have received in the past 6 months as part of their journey to provide educators, students, and consumers access to a higher performance and more affordable 3D printing experience. In January 2015, the Company was also selected amongst 26 of its peers for overall performance, notable print quality, and price by Make:, the leading 3D printing magazine in its Annual 2015 Guide to 3D printing.

According to BCBusiness' editors, "Our 30 Under 30 celebrates B.C.'s young guns who excel in their respective industries, give back to their community and planet, who will lead business in this province for years to come. Each year, winners of our 30 Under 30 will be featured in the April issue of BCBusiness and on BCBusiness.ca, with one exceptionally amazing young world-changer gracing that issue's cover."

The management and the board of Tinkerine Studios would like to congratulate Eugene on this significant achievement.
