Vancouver, B.C. – April 5, 2015 -- Tinkerine™ Studios Ltd. (TSXV: TTD, FSE: WKN WB6B and OTC:TKSTF), Canada's leading manufacturer of desktop 3D printers and 3D printing educational content, is pleased to announce a distribution agreement with UAE based PRECISE Group, ("PRECISE") a leader in 3D printing services and distribution throughout the GCC (the Gulf Cooperation Council), Middle East, Levant, and North African market, offering 3D printer products, and online training support to educational, enterprise, and retail customers throughout the region.

Through its agreement with Tinkerine, PRECISE will now be able to offer to its education, retail, and enterprise customers, a complete 3D printing bundle comprised of Tinkerine's award winning Ditto™ Pro 3D printer and software, high purity filament, and online training support and educational content through Tinkerine U. PRECISE currently distributes to 100 direct retail stores across the Middle East with an additional 60 planned by year-end 2015. PRECISE's dedicated online platform – The3DBee.com - specializes in 3D printing solutions, providing a user friendly customer experience, enabling customers to purchase a full suite of 3D products and solutions.

Lothar Hohmann, President of PRECISE commented, "Our goal is to be the one stop for 3D printing and services in the Middle East region, as we cater to different segments of the market, I strongly believe that our partnership will allow us to grow into the educational sector with Tinkerine - their STEAM (science, technology, engineering, arts, math) based Tinkerine U platform and the award winning Ditto™ Pro 3D printer. Additionally, we will be providing technical support and service in our region to complement Tinkerine's offerings through our dedicated online platform specializing in 3D printing and solutions - The3DBee.com."

Tinkerine's CEO Eugene Suyu added "We continue to penetrate strategic markets and win new customers by offering a higher quality 3D printing experience than our competitors. PRECISE Group provides the retail outlets and professional services to support Tinkerine in the region. Educators globally are demanding STEAM based educational content to support the next generation of learners, engineers, and designers. Tinkerine U is the global platform to deliver this content to virtually anyone in the world".

About PRECISE Group

Launched in 2002, PRECISE started out as a business in the production of exclusive personalization products like 2D & 3D Crystal Laser Engraving and custom manufacturing of unique corporate gifts for many Fortune 500 companies.

PRECISE - an early adopter of 3D printing technology in the Middle East and the exclusive distributors of 3D products like 3Doodler, Ultimaker, XYZprinting and Tinkerine in the region - has recently created the first online platform specializing in 3D printing and solutions: THE3DBEE (the3DBee.com)

Merchandise and Product development is a strong pillar of business for PRECISE, all products are conceptualized and designed in a dedicated production facility in Dubai Investment Park, which is owned by PRECISE. The company has witnessed unparalleled growth and is a MENA (Middle East, North Africa) wide group with 6 business verticals, making us the first choice for many companies and brands. Our business divisions include:

- 3D Printing Products Services and Solutions - THE3DBEE
- 2D & 3D Crystal Laser Engraving
- Merchandise & Product Development
- Leisure and Events
- Direct and Indirect Retail
- Product Channel Distribution
